

Dan's brother Alastair looking from Glyder Fach North Wales

New Job!

We arrived back in Cardiff in July and immediately began to work in our new role as representatives for New Tribes Mission.

So what is representing NTM all about? It's basically contacting Christians to get an opportunity to share the work of New Tribes Mission, informing them of the work and how they can get involved. It's not always easy though because we have to do all our own contacting and many churches have busy programmes that don't leave much room for new missionaries. However, we have spoken in a number of different places and have seen a real interest in the work.

We need to be challenged again by the words of the Lord Jesus, 'Go into all the world..' It is a privilege that we can all get involved in seeing this task completed whether we go, give or pray.

Ben's Box

Hi everyone, I'm now crawling really well, standing up and pushing my walker around. I have 6 teeth and enjoy my food as you can see! You never know, I might be walking soon then look out mum and dad!!

Home sweet home!

We're really enjoying being back home and being able to worship together with our home church. It's all going by so fast!! We can't believe that we've been back here nearly three months. Time really flies!

Likewise time spent with our family is precious as we will be away from them for a number of years once we leave for the mission field. It was lovely to have Dan's younger brother and his family over from Australia for a few weeks and to spend some quality time with them.

Preparation

At the same time, we are preparing for the mission field. Try and imagine all the things that you need for a four year stay in the jungle and you've got a pretty long list! When you think of a 4-year period in the life of a child, they have need of many different things, particularly in the way of teaching materials.

There are 101 jobs to do before we leave such as medical checkups, visa application, buying equipment, making out a will, just to name a few. We believe that God will take care of every situation and guide us in all the tasks that we have to get done before we finally leave.

Prayer & Praise

- Pray that God will open doors of opportunity so that we can challenge people to the mission field.
- Pray for labourers to be raised up to tell those who have no access to the Gospel
- Pray that God will give us wisdom in preparing for the mission field.
- Praise God for His love and faithfulness every day!
